

Watercrest Senior Living Group Honors Mark Chilcott For Excellence in Servant Leadership

VERO BEACH, FL, October 17, 2014– The principals of Watercrest Senior Living Group, Marc Vorkapich, CEO and Joan Williams, CFO proudly celebrated Mark Chilcott for his proven excellence in servant leadership as the Vice-President of Development for Watercrest Senior Living Group.

Chilcott was presented with the Watercrest Senior Living Group Servant Leadership Coin in recognition of achievement and commitment to serving seniors. The Watercrest mission “to welcome, to care, to serve” derives from four primary points of view to inspire associates to recognize and celebrate one another’s gifts through service. The Servant Leadership Coin features those four points: Purpose, Passion, Platform and Potential and symbolizes the message that each of us is uniquely and distinctly created by God for a specific purpose and encourages associates to follow their passion in developing their gifts.

Less than one year after joining the executive Watercrest team, Chilcott has exemplified the Watercrest mission through his devotion and commitment to excellence.

“Mark Chilcott is a servant leader in every aspect of the term, dedication, honor, loyalty, servitude, and an intrinsic drive to deliver an exceptional product and experience,” praised Marc Vorkapich, CEO of Watercrest Senior Living Group. “As Vice-President of Development, he is a critical component in our mission to drive a culture based on quality distinction and we are incredibly blessed to work with him daily.”

Watercrest Senior Living Group recently broke ground on their premier Watercrest at Lake Nona Assisted Living and Memory Care Community in Lake Nona, Florida; a project Mark Chilcott has played an instrumental role in developing.

“Driving a culture committed to values and servitude impacts every aspect of my life exponentially,” adds Mark Chilcott, “I’m honored to be recognized, but most thankful to be serving seniors and creating standards of excellence in our industry and beyond.”

Watercrest Senior Living Group specializes in the development and operations of assisted living and memory care communities, market repositioning and advisory services.
