

Watercrest Principals Enjoy Stockholm Kings of Tennis Event Presented by Index International

VERO BEACH, FL, March 24, 2014 – The principals of Watercrest Senior Living Group, Marc Vorkapich, CEO and Joan Williams, CFO, traveled to Stockholm, Sweden as special guests of Index International AB for the Kings of Tennis 2014 ATP Champions Tour Event. Index founders, Bjarne Borg and Fredrik Alama hosted Vorkapich and Williams on a four-day exclusive event tour.

The main event, the Kings of Tennis tournament, held at the Stockholm Waterfront Congress Centre, included three evenings of matches between noted champions Thomas Enqvist, Stefan Edberg, Mats Wilander, Henri Leconte, Carlos Moya and Marcelo Rios. In the exciting final match, Thomas Enqvist charged past defending champion Stefan Edberg 6-2, 6-3 to claim the 2014 Kings of Tennis crown in his hometown of Stockholm.

Watercrest Senior Living Group and Index International AB have recently partnered in a $500 million joint venture agreement in the co-development of senior living communities in the United States. This significant partnership combines the financial, development and operational resources necessary to achieve explosive growth in the senior housing industry.

The week's festivities also included the celebration of Index's 15-year anniversary as a global independent investment company in real estate and equity investments. Built on private capital without institutional funding, Index maintains investments in Sweden and North America, and is actively expanding further into North America and Europe.
